Sad news about old friends of Linton

Our faithful Churchwarden of over 20 years, Roger Bettle, died suddenly on 4th January. Provisional date for funeral is 28th February. Further details will follow.

Sheila Wilson died in autumn 2023, having moved to be near family some 10 years ago. She and Ken had worshipped at St Nicholas for many years and Sheila had been a key member of YOG (Young Ornithologists Group) with Anne Bird. The family are coming to Kent on 21st February to bury her ashes. It is hoped to open the church and provide refreshments for anyone who wishes to attend.

Pauline Waters, who moved to Gloucestershire with husband Tom 10 years ago, died peacefully at home at the age of 91 on Boxing Day. Kath has contact details of the family as well as of the funeral for any who wish to be in touch.

Pastoral Letter from the Rector

I really shouldn't put myself on the rota to write to you in the winter months. I suffer with chronic 'Winteritis' and am such a misery, I had to Google 'what is good about February?' before I could even think about writing today.

But February it is, and it's the shortest month and the days are slowly getting lighter so there is some solace and even joy to be found in knowing it will be over soon! Joking (am I?) aside, if we decide to, we can always try to find something positive and affirming in life, so here are a few things to love about February: The snowdrops! The first, brave, beautiful flowers to stick their heads above the parapet of winter. The churchyard of St Mary's Hunton will be a stunning carpet of white and green delightfulness over the next couple of weeks - come on down and enjoy nature's artwork!

World Nutella Day is on February 5th. Surely nothing gets much better than that? I can recommend a lovely recipe for a Nutella brioche loaf. But if you can't be bothered with that, get a box of breadsticks, a jar of the sweet chocolatey joy, and hunker down in front of a good film.

Of course we have St Valentine's Day on the 14th – and, if that's your thing - enjoy! Love those dear to you, revel in the red roses and push the boat out with a lovely 'dine in for two' meal deal from M & S. If it's not your thing, let it pass by without a moment's angst. (Here's little nugget for you though: St Valentine, the patron saint of love and romance is also the patron saint of the bubonic plague... make of that what you will!)

February 17th apparently brings us Random Acts of Kindness day 2025. What better way to combat the winter blues than to spend a day doing nice things for other people - I wonder how many people in your family and community you could manage to bless in small ways if you put your mind to it?

Happy February to you all. Bless you. Keep warm. Keep loving. Hang in there! Lorna
